

Topic Feedback on Session with Steve Rudolph Date 11/5/10

The education industry has been made into such a mess nowadays, that ~~for~~ I'm glad that people like ~~Steve~~ Steve Rudolph are present. They, with the aid of ~~of~~ ingenious software are able to channelise and focus a child's potential and make the confused young adult realise his ~~their~~ ~~potential~~ passion.

The reason this career advice session is a cut-above the others is because his software plays on your strengths and not on popular steady strong income jobs. He is also quite calm and reassuring when ~~up~~ he points out your weaknesses and how to get them to make do well. The decision is also not binding and tells you what you gotta work on to pursue your dream career.

Mr. ~~I~~ Rudolph is certainly a distinguished educationer and has earned my respect for him during ~~course~~ of this session.
